| Jérôme Roederer joins LWA as Chief Financial Officer and Operations Director |

The appointment of Jérôme Roederer strengthens the firm's strategy of professionalization and innovation to better meet the expectations of its clients and collaborators.

Jérôme Roederer brings extensive and diversified experience, initially as Chief Financial Officer in the industry, transportation and logistics, and since 2019 in the legal sector as Chief Financial Officer and then Deputy General Manager at LPA-CGR Avocats.

As a true « business partner, » Jérôme Roederer fully integrates finance into the firm's strategic vision and collaborates cross-functionally with the entire organization.

« With over 20 years of experience in various finance roles and across diverse sectors, my ambition is to provide demanding and high-quality support to LWA to enhance its development. Given the significant strengths already present within LWA, this can only succeed, » ensures Jérôme Roederer.

« Thanks to his expertise and background, Jérôme Roederer will help to strengthen the firm's development and enhance the performance of our team of lawyers. » explain Amélie d'Heilly and Marion Delaigue, co-managers of the firm.

Latournerie Wolfrom Avocats (LWA) is a multidisciplinary business law firm created in 1995. Recognized for its technical expertise, its rigor and its desire to innovate, LWA was initially formed around the triptych: M&A, public business law and new technologies. It has since added a wider range of skills to cover all the most important areas of business law: real estate law, private equity, tax law, employment law, environmental law, competition law and litigation. With a view to meeting the needs of companies in the public and private sectors, whether start-ups or large listed groups, LWA assists its clients in their strategic development in France and abroad: in the design, negotiation and implementation phases of strategies and fundamental projects, as well as during litigation and arbitration.
